

ELA Vocabulary Words

Across

- 5. Giving human traits to non-human objects
- 8. Compares two unlike things without using like or as
- 11. A representative person, place, thing, or event
- 12. The loose ends are tied up for the reader and character
- 14. The character deals with life after facing their problem in the turning point of the story
- 16. A group of words that are not meant as their literal meaning. These are specific to a culture

- 17. Generally, the beginning of the story where the characters, setting, background information, and problem are introduced
- 19. The author presents information in time order
- 21. A short, personal story
- 22. The author shows similarities and differences between two or more things

Down

- 1. Words said from another source
- 2. Numerical Data
- 3. The character comes face to face with their problem. Turning point in story
- 4. The author presents a problem and possible solutions

- 6. Compares two unlike things using like or as
- 7. The author shows the relationship between actions or events and their results
- 9. The author shows the particular order events, movements or things follow each other
- 10. A hypothetical situation
- 13. The character is attempting to solve their problem
- 15. Problem that moves the story along. It always involves the main character
- 18. The author shows the positive and the negative side of one or more topics
- 20. An exaggeration so outrageous, nobody would believe it