

Name: _____

EMS Vocab

Across

4. Process by which a person is evaluated and recognized as meeting certain predetermined standards.
8. Abnormal invasion of a host or parasites
9. Verbal information communicated about a person that is false
13. The basic filtering unit of the kidneys
18. Relates to medical forensic science
20. When a person who has the duty abuses it
21. Discoloration caused by blood settling in the lowest point of the body
23. Further from the trunk
24. The bottom of the foot
27. Able to make rational decisions about well being.
28. The legal responsibility of of a persons to assume parental responsibilities

29. Transmission of a disease from one person to another from an object
30. Code of conduct that is defined by a society religion or person
31. Permission for treatment given by a competent person

Down

1. The forward facing part of the hand in the anatomic position
2. Further from the midline
3. The bodys response to stress.
5. Process whereby a competent authority allows people to perform a regulated act.
6. An organism which transports a pathogen
7. Defines the care that an EMT is able to provide
10. A call center staffed by professionals who are responsible for managing first responders

11. Communication of false information about a person which is damaging to that persons reputation.
12. The presence of an infectious disease
14. False and damaging info about a person which is communicated in writing
15. Closer to the trunk
16. Type of consent where either a patient gives verbal or nonverbal authorization for treatment
17. Unlawfully touching or rendering care without consent
19. The manner which an infectious disease is spread
22. The ability to transmit and receive simultaneously
25. The anterior surface of the body
26. A wrongful act that gives rise to a civil suit