

EMT Airway Trivia

Across

3. Snoring, gurgling, and stridor are all sounds of the _____ airway.
 5. A beta-2 drug that causes bronchodilation, often administered by MDI.
 9. Oxygen binds to _____ in the blood
 12. The sound caused by swelling in the upper airway
 13. Too much carbon dioxide in the body (synonym: hypercarbia)
 14. The type of muscle lining the airways.
 15. Oxygen is carried by _____ blood cells
 16. Lack of oxygen in the tissues
 17. The amount of air we breathe in and out in one minute is called...

19. The type of airway sounds we hear without a stethoscope
 21. We squeeze the bag when breathing for an intubated patient every ____ seconds.
 22. Wheezing, crackles, and rhonchi are all _____ airway sounds
 25. The majority of ambient air is made up of
 26. Slow, irregular respirations often observed in cardiac arrest
 27. When a patient is choking but moving air, we encourage them to...
 29. The correct treatment for a patient who is not adequately breathing

Down

1. The chemical receptors of the body, located in the aorta, carotid arteries, and brain.

2. The sound relieved by suctioning fluids from the airway
 4. To listen with a stethoscope
 6. 21% of the ambient air is made of
 7. Overventilation may cause gastric.....
 8. Complete lack of breathing
 10. A slow respiratory rate
 11. A fast respiratory rate
 18. Difficulty Breathing
 20. The type of airway sounds we hear with a stethoscope
 23. The sound relieved with a head-tilt chin lift
 24. Lack of oxygen in the blood
 28. We squeeze the bag when breathing for a non-intubated patient every ____ seconds