

ENGLISH LANGUAGE: KEY WORDS

Across

- 5. Using language to gain acceptance within a situation.
- 6. One-person speaking, such as narration.
- 10. The suggested meaning of a word or saying.
- 12. Language that is specific to the individuals.
- 14. AKA: the 'Readers' or 'Listeners'
- 15. Language used by a group of people, such as a friendship group.

Down

- 1. This type of sentence usually consists of a main clause and a subordinate clause.
- 2. Two or more people involved in speech.
- 3. A word, letter or number placed before another word.
- 4. Maintaining or strengthening social relationships.

- 7. A recorded conversation derived from a previously written text.
- 8. Examples of this type of sentence include 'Sounds good' or 'yeah okay'.
- 9. Grammatically correct way of saying 'words'.
- 11. The literal meaning of a sentence or word.
- 13. "After the adjective" (manage + able = manageable)