

EOG Review (alliteration -- dialogue)

Across

3. The self-written account of the life of a person.

10. The occurrence of the same letter or sound at the beginning of adjacent or closely connected words.

12. A written account of another person's life.

13. Agreement or compatibility between opinions or actions.

14. When two or more words close to each other repeat the same vowel sound but start with different consonant sounds.

16. Prejudice in favor of or against one thing, person, or group compared with another, usually in a way considered to be unfair.

17. A drawing showing the appearance, structure, or workings of something.

18. Hints that an author gives to help define a difficult or unusual word.

19. A literal or primary meaning of a word, in contrast to the feelings or ideas that the word suggests.

Down

1. A person who opposes or struggles against another person.

2. In order of time. It is used to describe a sequence of events.

4. An implied meaning that is associated with a word in addition to its literal meaning.

5. To inform or to persuade or to entertain.

6. Conversation between two or more people as a feature of a book, play, or movie.

7. A particular form of a language that is peculiar to a specific region or social group.

8. A title or brief explanation appended to an article, illustration, cartoon, or poster.

9. The most intense, exciting, or important point of something.

11. Noting a relationship between actions or events such that one or more are the result of the other or others.

15. A particular activity or cause that has suddenly become fashionable or popular.