

ETY&VOCAB MIDTERM REVIEW

Across

- 3. mislead, hedge, use words ambiguously
- 7. unchangeable
- 10. mark of disgrace, taint. Slaves in ancient Greece would be branded on their forehead to make escaping harder.
- 11. doubting the goodness and sincerity of human nature, derisive. Diogenes would walk around in broad daylight with a lamp to show he was looking for an honest man, one that could not be found.

- 12. censor, expurgate; Thomas Bowlder thought Shakespeare's language was too crude.
 - 14. chaos; tumult; pan-(all); daimon-(demon in Greek)
 - 15. noisy, loudly insistent
- Down
- 1. indifferent to pleasure and pain, imperturbable, self-controlled. One to me is pleasure or pain, one to me is shame or fame, one to me is loss or gain.
 - 2. cater to another's weaknesses or desires; cater

- 4. colossal; He slew his teacher and a lion.
- 5. fanciful, chimerical. Don Quixote would fight windmills thinking they were evil giants.
- 6. suggestive, calling up
- 8. hobby
- 9. facilitate, hasten or speed up.
- 13. hinder, obstruct, thwart