

Early Civilizations Review

Across

2. This ruler, also known as _____ II, helped build the Hanging Gardens

5. A group of different lands and people governed by one ruler, also a show on television starring Taraji P. Henson

7. This ruler began the Akkadian Empire, known as _____ the Great

11. People who are skilled at making things by hand, also a type of flatbread you may get at a restaurant

12. Formal series of acts always performed in the same way. Mr. Gardner sings songs in his car at the top of his lungs before any big interview or exam- which is also an example of this.

13. An area within a civilization that includes the city and its surrounding lands.

14. Fine and fertile soil, perfect for agriculture

Down

1. Sympathy for the beliefs and practices of others

3. The Code of _____ was a set of laws. Was he Fair or Cruel? You can decide.

4. Pyramid-shaped temple, means "mountaintop"

6. Watering fields using human-made systems

8. Partnerships or Agreements, also something Mr. Gardner may have if he was on the show Survivor

9. Belief in many gods.

10. This GREAT helped improve life in the Persian Empire by building new roads and introduced a form of currency, which made it easier to pay taxes and buy goods.
