

Echinoderm Crossword

Across

- 3. I am located at the end of each arm of a star fish.
- 5. This is how echinoderms reproduce.
- 11. The great barrier reef is being impact by the crown of _____.
- 12. This is a small dot on the dorsal surface which lets water into the wvs.
- 14. This is the middle of a sea star.
- 15. I mean spiny skin.
- 16. Sea stars have _____ fertilization.

17. Sand dollars, sea biscuits, and sea urchins are in the class of _____.

18. This class has organisms that look plant like.

19. Body parts are arranged around a central axis is called _____.

20. The organisms in my class have webbed arms. Who am I?

Down

1. The ability to grow a limb back if one is lost.

2. The spines of a sea urchin can contain _____.

4. The class _____ has the ability to detach its arms.

6. The ability to expel their internal organs to distract a predator.

7. This is a network of water-filled canals and tubes inside of echinoderms.

8. I am the reproductive organ of all echinoderms. Who am I?

9. I help echinoderms cling to hard surfaces, move around, and pry open food. What am I?

10. Sea cumpers are the only organisms in this class.

13. I take in water through my anus. Who am I?