

Ecology Vocab Crossword

Across

- 1. The largest population that an area can hold is called _____.
- 2. Anywhere where there aren't any organisms are the opposite of this answer.
- 5. When you move into a new population, you are doing _____.
- 12. People that study how organisms interact with their environment are studying _____.
- 13. An organism that only eats animals.
- 14. When the pioneers sailed to the "New World", we were a _____.

15. A situation in which one organism benefits and the other doesn't get bothered.

Down

- 3. A diagram that shows the amount of energy that moves through the food web.
- 4. When there limited resources and two different animals need them, then there is _____.
- 6. Mushrooms are examples of this, and they return important materials to the soil.
- 7. This happens when food chains overlap in an ecosystem.

8. Biotic and abiotic factors that live in the same community are in a _____.

- 9. A _____ is when a toad eats a insect, then a snake eats the toad, etc.
- 10. Humans are examples are _____ because when we get our energy we do that.
- 11. When you have all the different populations in a area that live together, is called a _____.