

Ecology Vocabulary

Across

- 4. A non-mutal relationship where one organism benefits and the other is harmed
- 8. A relationship between two organisms where one benefits without affecting the other
- 9. All of the individuals of the same species within an ecological community
- 10. The scientific study of the relationships of organisms with each other and their physical surroundings

- 11. An organism that can make its own food from inorganic substances using light or chemical energy
- 12. The variety of life in the world or in a particular habitat or ecosystem

Down

- 1. The number of people and other living organisms(plants or animals) that an area can support without environmental destruction
- 2. A biological community of interacting organisms and their physical environment

- 3. A relationship between organisms that benefits both organisms
- 5. An organism that decomposes or breaks down organic material
- 6. An organism that cannot produce its own food, so it gets energy from eating plants or animals
- 7. The place or function of a specific organism within its ecosystem