

Economics

Across

- 5. the amount of something that is available
- 7. the financial gain received by selling something for more than it cost to make
- 9. the process of developing newer, better things
- 10. the people who put everything together to make goods and services
- 11. someone who acquires goods and services for his or her own personal use

- 13. producers are free to decide what to produce and consumers are free to buy whatever they need and want
- 14. active of buying and selling that takes place out in the world
- 15. the limited amount of resources available

Down

- 1. producers battling over who can make the most profit
- 2. the benefit you give up by choosing to do one thing rather than another

- 3. the machines, tools, and buildings used in the production of goods and services
- 4. the number of consumers who want it
- 6. someone who makes or offers services to others
- 8. the thing that motivates them
- 12. the way goods and services are produced and consumed