

Name: _____

Date: _____

Economics

Across

- 3. to put aside money to use later
- 7. A person or country's need for someone or something in order to survive or exist
- 8. to exchange one thing for another
- 10. things you can buy, sell, or trade
- 11. to receive money or other payments in exchange for work

12. a unit of exchange that can be used to buy goods and service

13. to pay money in exchange for goods/services

Down

- 1. to trade goods or services without using money
- 2. Depending on other countries, people or business for resources, goods, or services

4. Materials, such as trees, wood, coal, diamonds, that are found in nature and used by people

- 5. things that people do for others
- 6. The study of how people produce, distribute, and use goods/services

9. A method or set of procedures for doing something