

Economics Crossword

Across

4. the ability to produce vast amounts of goods (economic products) in an efficient manner

7. An assignment of worth

10. Items used in the creation of other goods. factory machinery, trucks, etc

11. Any good that lasts more than three years when used on a regular basis

13. Goods that are intended for final use by the consumer

16. Simply the desire of citizens

18. goods and services that are useful, relatively scarce and transferable

19. Use of a good or service to impress others

Down

1. Any item that lasts less than 3 years when used on a regular basis

2. Air, sunshine are and other items so plentiful no one could own them

3. the study the production and distribution of goods and services

5. These are basic requirements for survival like food and water and shelter

6. the fundamental economic problem facing ALL societies

8. the sum collection of those economic products that are tangible, scarce and useful

9. the work force

12. tangible commodity

14. Work that is performed for someone

15. the cost of an economic decision

17. people who use these goods and services

20. capacity to be useful

Word Bank

Good

Value

Utility

Opportunity cost

Scarcity

Needs

Consumer Goods

Conspicuous Consumption

Consumers

Free products

Capital Goods

economic products

Durable Goods

Wealth

Labor

Services

Economics

productivity

Wants

Non Durable Goods