

Economics

Across

8. Any place where people come together to buy and sell goods or services

10. A person who has a special talent for searching out and taking advantage of new business opportunities

12. Anything that satisfies a person's wants or brings satisfaction; also, tangible products

13. A legal limit on the number of units of a foreign-produced good that can enter a country

15. A work stoppage called by union members to put pressure on an employer

16. The condition in which our wants are greater than the resources available to satisfy those wants.

Down

1. Able to be felt by touch.

2. Require the payment of before it can be acquired or done

3. The most highly valued opportunity or alternative forfeited when a choice is made

4. The physical and mental talents that people contribute to the production of goods and services

5. The willingness and ability to purchase a good or service

6. A system of connected parts forming a complex whole

7. All the natural resources found in nature

9. A situation in which more of one thing necessarily means less of something else

11. The study of how people choose to use their scarce resources in an attempt to satisfy their unlimited wants

14. Insufficient for demand