

Economics

Across

4. all the natural resources used in the production of a good or service

8. mainly free enterprise but govt. sets laws and organizes programs intended to promote economic progress

10. _____ incentives are prizes, money, or another material gain awarded for a desired behavior

11. all the human labor required for the production and distribution of a good or service

13. govt. controls some major industries; some free enterprise; higher taxes fund govt. spending

14. period of no or negative economic growth

16. percent of a population that can read at primary school level or higher

17. _____ incentives; one's behavior is based on what is socially accepted

18. _____ evidence is a story or experience based information

Down

1. custom and cultural values steer all economic activities

2. average death rate for people in a nation

3. the creative minds and business people who are essential to the development

5. govt. plays a major role in economic planning and production

6. _____ evidence which is data driven, scientific research

7. _____ incentives; one's behavior is shaped by personal value system and the concept of right and wrong

9. refers to the limited supply of any resource

12. an overall measure of the well being of all people in a given nation

15. all the man-made resources used in the production of a good or service