

Edgar Allen Poe

Across

- 1. In "The Black Cat," the narrator is undecided, making him an _____ narrator
- 3. The narrator in "The Fall of The House of Usher" is confident, making him a _____ narrator
- 10. Montresor's idea of a perfect crime is to "punish with _____"
- 12. The narrator compares the windows on the House of Usher to _____
- 14. The narrator in "The Black Cat" kills his wife with an _____
- 15. The amount of walls standing at the end of "The Black Cat"
- 18. The wine that Montresor gives to Fortunato
- 20. The narrator places his dead wife and living cat into the _____

- 21. The object in which the narrator hung his cat from
- 25. A word to describe Roderick Usher's painting style
- 26. Fortunato's love for _____ lead him to his death
- 27. Who attacks Roderick Usher at the end of the story?

Down

- 2. The type of psychology that Montresor uses to lure Fortunato into the cave
- 4. what is the color of the splotch that the second cat has, that the first cat didn't have.
- 5. Roderick Usher asks the narrator to visit because he is feeling _____
- 6. The black cat is missing an _____
- 7. An action that is illegal today, but was committed repeatedly in the House of Usher.
- 8. Another name for the House of Usher

- 9. The book that Roderick Usher and the narrator read together
- 11. The narrator's wife in "The Black Cat" believes in _____
- 13. The season going on in "The Cask of Amontillado"
- 16. The point of view used in "The Fall of The House of Usher"
- 17. Roderick Usher believed he would die from his own _____
- 19. The room in which Roderick is living is large and _____
- 22. The narrator's wife insists that the black cat is a _____
- 23. The country in which "The Cask of Amontillado" takes place in
- 24. Roderick Usher and Madeline Usher are _____