

Name: _____

Education

Across

5. Valuing white, western music, literature, languages, history, religion, etc and disregards black and Asian cultures

7. Education reproduces class inequality and supports capitalism

8. The kind of pupil teachers prefer to teach, e.g. hardworking, bright. Teachers are more likely to see white-middle class pupils as closest to this ideal.

9. A belief in fate - 'whatever will be, will be' and there is nothing you can do to change your status.

10. 11+ exam identified pupils' abilities. Pupils assigned to 1 of 3 types of school: grammar, secondary modern, or technical

12. When a prediction made about someone comes true just because the prediction has been made.

13. Everyone has an equal chance of success, and efforts and abilities are rewarded.

Down

1. Organisation based on pyramid of senior and junior positions and top-down control, e.g. a headteacher has more control over the teachers who have more control over the students.

2. Valuing being part of a group more than succeeding as an individual.

3. Encouragement of competition between schools and choice for parents

4. The type of capital that refers to knowledge, attitudes, values, languages, tastes and abilities of the middle class.

6. Learned, taken-for-granted ways of thinking, acting and being that are shared by a certain social class or group.

11. Separating children into different ability groups.