

Education revision

Across

2. A theoretical perspective stressing cultural pluralism and diversity
 3. These measure a school's performance
 10. Some teachers may attach this to their students
 14. This sociologist studied the lads
 15. A system based on male dominance
 17. A theoretical perspective which focuses on the meanings that people give to actions
 18. The informal workings of the curriculum
 19. The application of the scientific method for studying society
 21. Advocates market forces in schools
 22. Two sociologists who identified the term correspondence principle

23. A Marxist who saw education as part of the ideological state apparatus
 24. Registers in schools would be an example of one of these

Down

1. A concept employed by Becker in his study of education
 4. Archer's term, experienced by working class students in school
 5. Putting your hypothesis into measurable form
 6. Bourdieu's concept describing knowledge, attitudes and values which gives the middle class an advantage in the education system
 7. Education policy aimed at the development of work based skills
 8. Can be cultural or material which affects achievement

9. A perspective associated with the belief that education sorts and sifts people and is the main agency of secondary socialisation

11. How far your study measures what is sets out and produces a genuine picture of social life
 12. A policy associated with new labour
 13. Fuller's study on black girls in a London comprehensive found the girls were anti-school but....
 16. A system that rewards ability and effort
 20. A dominant set of beliefs and values seen by sociologists to be transmitted by the education