

Eldridge v British Columbia

Across

1. Section _____ of the Charter governs private entities.
3. Appellants sought _____ to help communicate at medical appointments.
7. Purpose of section 15(1) is to remedy or prevent.
9. Decider
10. BC's compliance with Eldridge decision.

11. There is _____ difference in public and private health care entities.
12. Ground upon which appellant claimed discrimination.
14. Appellant
15. A remedy is meaningless if it is not _____.

Down

2. Respondent

4. Process through which the Courts examine sections of the Charter.
5. Eldridge represents a model for _____ of policy guidelines.
6. Someone who gets leave from the court to interpose in a proceeding.
8. Charter changed the role of the _____.
13. Canada health care systems are _____.