

Elements of Drama Vocab

Across

- 2. a person who narrates something, especially a character who recounts the events of a novel or narrative poem
- 5. process of releasing strong or repressed emotions
- 6. conflict is resolved; play ends
- 9. comic dramatic work using buffoonery and horseplay
- 10. point of highest tension; action determines how the conflict will be resolved

- 13. is noble and in many ways admirable but has a tragic flaw
- 17. speech by a character alone onstage to himself or herself or to the audience
- 18. long speech given by one character to others
- 19. a play that ends unhappily.

Down

- 1. When Tension Builds
- 3. the creation or construction of a fictional character
- 4. written or spoken language in its ordinary form, without metrical structure

- 7. characters and conflict are introduced
- 8. a struggle or clash between opposing characters or forces.
- 11. story enacted onstage for a live audience
- 12. remarks made to the audience or to one character; the other characters onstage do not hear an asid
- 14. excessive pride or self-confidence
- 15. conversation between two or more people as a feature of a book, play, or movie
- 16. a play that ends happily