

Name: _____

Date: _____

Emergency Health

Across

- 4. Medication used to treat anaphylactic shock
- 8. Abnormal internal or external bleeding
- 10. Tissues death from lack of blood supply
- 12. Medication used to treat opioid overdose
- 13. Subjective sensation or motor phenomenon that precedes and marks the onset of a seizure
- 14. Sudden decrease in blood flow to the brain causing a temporary loss of consciousness
- 16. Breakage of a bone

17. The act of inhaling foreign matter, usually emesis, into the respiratory tract

18. Inadequate blood supply to the tissues

19. Sudden drop in blood flow depriving the cells of oxygen and nutrients

Down

1. Lack of blood supply to the brain. Can be ischemic or hemorrhagic

2. Placement of a tube within or through the trachea

3. Lack of blood supply to the heart muscle causing damage to the cardiac muscle

5. Hormone secreted by the adrenal glands, especially in times of stress

6. The response of the body to an allergen

7. The acronym used to evaluate victims of a CVA

9. Setting priorities for care to determine order of treatment

11. Sudden uncontrolled electrical disturbance in the brain that can cause changes in behavior, movements, and level of consciousness

15. Responsiveness of the mind and to the impressions made by the senses