

Emergency Medicine

Across

- 3. This section of the spine controls head and neck movement
- 6. What type of roll happens when a patient is rolled from their front to their back?
- 8. The removal of a all or part of a limb
- 14. Putting on gloves is which step in providing wound care
- 15. When a patient is laying face down this position is called _____
- 16. Cleaning the wound and area is which step in providint wound care?
- 19. Small scraps on the surface of the skin
- 20. _____ is an example of a closed wound
- 21. This section of the spine is in the middle
- 22. An injury to the skin that causes bleeding or fluid leakage

- 24. When a patient is laying face up this position is called _____
 - 26. Another word for spinal cord is _____
 - 28. An injury caused by a circular object
- Down
- 1. How many sections are there in the spine
 - 2. A partial or complete tear of tissue from an area
 - 4. Apply a band aid is which step in providing wound care
 - 5. Another name for bone or ligamentous injuries.
 - 7. A professional who is responsible for the care of athletes
 - 9. A deep cut into the skin, greater than a 1 inch, that causes a lot of bleeding

- 10. When a joint seperates from the socket this is called a _____
- 11. When a bone comes through the skin this is called an _____
- 12. An injury that doesnt break through the skin
- 13. Cleaning up your supplies is which step in providing wound care
- 17. This wound is caused by a surgical tool
- 18. Stopping the bleeding is which step in providing wound care
- 23. In addition to high schools and colleges, Athletic Trainers can also work for this governmental organization
- 25. This section of the spine makes up the low back
- 27. When holding a persons neck you are stablizing _____?