

Emotions Crossword

Across

- 5. After violating a cultural norm, doing something clumsy, being teased, or experiencing a threat to their self-image people feel _____.
- 9. Emotions influence our decision making in different ways
- 11. In a study, people in good moods rated their lives as satisfactory, whereas people in bad moods gave lower overall ratings
- 12. Support for facial expressions are weakest for _____.
- 13. Occurs most often when people believe others might view them negatively and communicates an understanding that some type of social awkwardness has occurred

Word Bank

- Amygdala
- Emotion
- Embarrassed
- Stimulus
- Affect-as-information Theory

Down

- 1. Processes the emotional significance of stimuli and generates immediate emotional and behavioral reactions (helps read facial expressions)
- 2. Blends of primary emotions; they include remorse, guilt, shame, submission, and anticipation
- 3. People use their current moods to make decisions, judgments, and appraisals, even if they do not know the sources of their moods
- 4. What happens to your body when a stimulus occurs
- 6. Support for facial expressions are strongest for _____.

- Happiness
- Blushing
- Bodily Response
- Primary Emotions

- 7. Evolutionarily adaptive emotions that are shared across cultures and associated with specific physical states; they include anger, fear, sadness, disgust, happiness, and possibly surprise and contempt
- 8. Something that causes you to have a certain reaction
- 10. A feeling is otherwise called _____.

- Secondary Emotions
- Disgust
- Emotion Affects Judgements
- Decision Making