

Name: _____

Date: _____

Employment

Across

1. All the knowledge you have gained from doing past activities
3. The extra items one receives or is eligible to receive when working for a company
7. The process of turning raw material into a product that is sold
9. A person who makes detailed examinations of something and determines options based on those findings
10. Acts that we are expected to accomplish

12. Where something can be found

13. People who work for a company

14. A computer program that organizes numerical data into rows and columns in order to calculate and make adjustments based on new data

Down

2. A document that shows the work that was completed and a charge that needs to be paid for the work completed

4. The act of watching someone to make sure they are doing what they are supposed to be doing

5. An activity where you are expected to show up a perform tasks that you will in turn get paid for

6. The quality of having the right knowledge and education that are right for a specific purpose

8. Tasks that you are able to achieve

11. A set time of where you need to be when