

Employment Law Vocabulary and Preposition Review

Across

- 6. to copea problem
- 12. adjective from the word for a law coming from an Act of Parliament, not a precedent from case law.
- 14. Repayment for office expense which you had paid in advance on its behalf
- 15. a lawyer who works by him/herself, not in partnership
- 17. there is legislation force to prevent employers dismissing employees unfairly
- 18. the terms of the agreement
- 19. respect of
- 20. money paid monthly to an employee, usually a 'white-collar' employee

21. to advise someone a particular matter

23. a type of employment category staffed mainly by women

26. Top-secret information

Down

- 1. general word for money paid for a service
- 2. You should not need a solicitor to you in an employment case
- 3. When someone fails to comply with an important term of the contract, he commits a
- 4. very bad behaviour in an employment context
- 5. Unfairly dismissed (US) and (UK)
- 7. someone who has a history of succeeding in a particular type of work has a good

8. respect to

9. You have to a claim form before the employment tribunal will your case for unfair dismissal

10. a complaint, e.g. by an employee about working conditions in the company

11. to be made to lose your job through no fault of your own

13. If you lose your job unfairly, you can apply to an employment for compensation and-or reinstatement

16. spite

22. She is a paralegal, she works law

24. A slang way of saying to lose your job through no fault of your own, to be off

25. money paid weekly to an employee, usually a 'blue-collar' employee

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|-----------------|------------------|---------------------|-------------------|-----------|
| With | redundant | with | in | represent |
| pink-collar | salary | on | In, of | statutory |
| remuneration | Fired, sacked | reimbursement | complete, hear | in |
| tribunal | track record | highly confidential | grievance | wages |
| material breach | gross misconduct | laid | sole practitioner | In |
| under | | | | |