

Employment

Across

3. a person employed for wages or salary, especially at nonexecutive level.
5. a meeting of people face to face, especially for consultation.
8. are the total amount an employee is paid before any taxes, deductions, insurance premiums, and other payroll withholding
11. a quality or accomplishment that makes someone suitable for a particular job or activity. "only one qualification required—a fabulous sense of humor"
14. the action of mentioning or alluding to something. "he made reference to the enormous power of the mass media"
19. begin to do or pursue (something) again after a pause or interruption. "a day later normal service was resumed"
22. personal attributes that enable someone to interact effectively and harmoniously with other people.
23. a settled way of thinking or feeling about someone or something, typically one that is reflected in a person's behavior. "she took a tough attitude toward other people's indulgences"
24. a job or profession. "his prime occupation was as editor"
25. small advertisements placed in a newspaper and organized in categories.
26. is a bureau of the Department of Treasury that is tasked with the enforcement of income tax laws and oversees the collection of federal income taxes.
29. practical contact with and observation of facts or events. "he had already learned his lesson by painful experience"
32. a compulsory contribution to state revenue, levied by the government on workers' income and business profits or added to the cost of some goods, services, and transactions.

33. a difficult, unpleasant, or embarrassing situation. "the club's financial predicament"
34. the combined action of a group of people, especially when effective and efficient.
35. an advantage or profit gained from something.
36. an occupation undertaken for a significant period of a person's life and with opportunities for progress.

Down

1. a letter sent with, and explaining the contents of, another document or a parcel of goods.
2. the process of receiving or giving systematic instruction, especially at a school or university. "a new system of public education"
4. practical contact with and observation of facts or events. "he had already learned his lesson by painful experience"
6. (in football, soccer, rugby, hockey, and some other games) a pair of posts linked by a crossbar and often with a net attached behind it, forming a space into or over which the ball has to be sent in order to score.
7. are the amount the employee receives once gross wages have been reduced by deductions and taxes. It is the amount of their check and/or direct deposit(s). Otherwise known as Take-Home Pay, or Net Pay.
9. the state of wanting to know or learn about something or someone. "she looked about her with interest"
10. is a process that fosters the exchange of information and ideas among individuals or groups that share a common interest. It may be for social or business purposes. Professionals connect their business network through a series of symbolic ties and contacts.
12. the state of wanting to know or learn about something or someone. "she looked about her with interest"
13. a set of circumstances that makes it possible to do something. "we may see increased opportunities for export"
15. the state or condition of lacking strength. "the country's weakness in international dealings"
16. a formal request to an authority for something.
17. the action of deducting or subtracting something. "the dividend will be paid without deduction of tax"
18. the quality or state of being strong, in particular.
20. a paid position of regular employment. "jobs are created in the private sector, not in Washington"
21. the regard that something is held to deserve; the importance, worth, or usefulness of something. "your support is of great value"
27. the reason or reasons one has for acting or behaving in a particular way. "escape can be a strong motivation for travel"
28. a person who makes a formal application for something, typically a job.
30. a person or organization that employs people.
31. the ability to do something well; expertise. "difficult work, taking great skill"