

Name: _____

Date: _____

Eng vocab D-E

Across

3. Someone who looks like someone else; a ghost that looks like a living person

6. The running over a sentence from one verse or couplet into another so that closely related words fall in different lines

9. A word or phrase that describes a person or thing/ an offensive word or name that is used as a way of abusing or insulting someone

12. An engraved inscription; a quotation set at the beginning of a literary work or one of its divisions to suggest its theme

13. A sad poem or song; a poem or song that expresses sorrow for someone who is dead

Down

1. The study or a theory of the nature and grounds of knowledge especially with reference to its limits and validity

2. Designed or intended to teach people something

4. The final part of something (such as a book, play, series of events)

5. A word or expression that can be understood in two different ways with one way usually referring to sex

7. The study or a theory of the nature and grounds of knowledge especially with reference to its limits and validity

8. A moment in which you suddenly see or understand something in a new or very clear way

10. A difference between two opposite things: a division into two opposite groups

11. A short or clever poem or saying