

Engineering Crossword

Across

3. They use Science processes to improve and keep our environment safe.
 4. They test and design new ways to improve packaging.
 5. They design systems, and analyze different situations.
 11. Specialize in testing while using methodologies and techniques to do their job.
 15. They are responsible for testing the systems used to develop or manufacture products.
 16. They drive switching or other locomotives or dinky engines within a railroad yard.
 17. They design and build roads.
 18. They produce power generating machines, such as generators.
 19. They study in X-ray technology and make sure it is safe to use.

21. They test, research, and develop circuit boards, memory devices, and routers.
 22. They design or develop nuclear equipment, reactor cores and radiation shields.
 23. They focus on the study of optical lens such as one in your phone camera.
 25. They work with the design process, from the end to the beginning.
 26. They find ways to eliminate wastefulness in production processes.

Down

1. They provide solutions to complex and routine engineering need for small, medium, and large enterprises
 2. They improve and develop new types of software that help computers run.
 6. They design or plan protocols for equipment.
 7. They study the design, development and production of air and space craft.

8. These people look and test the benefits from machines using nuclear energy.
 9. They work with a combination of biology and medicine.
 10. This involves geology, civil engineering, forestry, and geography.
 12. They Solve problems on how to utilize gas power.
 13. They design, and maintain Telephones, and lines.
 14. They make sure that the washing machine in your house is stable and safe to use.
 20. They monitor and operate its complex aircraft systems.
 24. They use artificial light for entertainment, such as TV shows or plays.