

English Home Language

Across

2. The literal or primary meaning of a word.
 3. Having two or more possible meanings.
 5. Saying the same thing twice in different words; generally considered an error.
 11. A phrase with an understood meaning that is not apparent in the words.
 12. The associations of a word beyond the literal meaning.
 13. The level of formality of written or spoken language.
 16. Using the wrong word in place of a word that sounds similar.
 20. A polite way of saying something unpleasant.

21. Idea based on belief and cannot be proved.

22. An unnecessary repetition of meaning.

Down

1. Two statements expressed together, only one of which can be true.
 4. Shows the attitude of the speaker towards what is being expressed in the sentence.
 6. A judgement formed without confirming the facts.
 7. A question that does not expect an answer.
 8. Used to persuade or influence others
 9. A play on the meaning of words that sound or are spelt the same.

10. An unfair inclination for or against a person, group or idea.

14. Saying the opposite of what is meant, often with humorous or harmful intent

15. A situation or statement that is contrary to expectations.

17. The non-standard use of language by a particular social or cultural group.

18. An overused phrase that has lost its original impact.

19. A remark that seems innocent but is indirectly rude, insulting or threatening.