

English In The World

Across

4. A common language which can be used by different groups whose native language are different
5. Colonizing power imposing its language on native speakers of another language
9. Giving a word a stable definition and official status
10. When someone alters between two or more languages in one conversation

Down

1. When a word from one language is adapted for use in another language
2. The word borrowed from a language
3. The belief that language is subject to rules and should not change
6. All the words of Language
7. The circle where language is a foreign language
8. The extinction of a language