

English Vocab B- #1

Across

4. creative writing that evokes emotions
 6. all parts relate to the main idea
 9. the writer's or speaker's attitude
 11. uncertainty and excited anticipation
 13. a particular attitude toward or way of regarding (looking at) something; point of view

14. the sequence of events in the story

15. to compare to dissimilar things using "like" or "as"

16. the underlying message or perception the author

Down

1. techniques used to convince another
 2. the angle of vision from which a story or poem is told
 3. the atmosphere that a writer creates

5. a direct comparison of unlike things

7. the reason or reasons one has for acting or behaving in a particular way

8. the point in a piece of writing where something changes

10. the organization or form of a work

12. the time and place of the action of a story