

Name: _____

Date: _____

Entrepreneurship and Small Business Management

Across

2. The process of starting, organizing, managing, and assuming the responsibility for a business
4. A written description of the business idea and how it will be carried out, including all major business activities
9. Someone who takes a risk in starting a business to earn a profit
10. A government agency that helps small business owners develop business plans and obtain financing and other support for their companies.
11. An invention or creation that is brand new

Down

1. The amount of money needed to pay for the current operating activities of a business
3. The money needed to pay for the current operating activities of a business
5. Money needed for the main resources of a business (such as land, building, and equipment) that will last far many year
6. Money provided by large investors to finance new products and new businesses that have a good chance to be very profitable
7. A designed change that increases the usefulness of a product, service, or process
8. An independent business with fewer than 500 employees