

Env. Science Unit 2 Vocab

Across

6. a process in living organisms involving the production of energy
7. flammable black hard rock used as a solid fossil fuel.
8. formed in the ground from the remains of ancient living organisms.
9. process in which carbon is recycled in the environment
10. is a naturally occurring, yellow-to-black liquid

Down

1. The process of burning something
2. flammable gas, occurring naturally underground
3. can be found on earth in water, soil and sediments. Does not cycle in the air.
4. the state or process of rotting; decay
5. living or once living organisms