

Etiquette of ASL

Across

- 2. Conversations in ASL begin _____, get to the point quickly, then conclude formally and slowly.
- 4. Older people display a _____ attitude towards the youth.
- 5. Deaf people in the US and Canada consider themselves a _____ group and are remarkably close knit.
- 9. Deaf young people often enjoy _____ relationships with their elders.
- 11. Leavetaking in the Deaf community is always fairly formal and _____.
- 14. _____ inhibits communication
- 16. In the Deaf community, the feeling of _____ must be actively promoted.
- 19. Those whose hearing families may not use sign language, the Deaf community is their _____ family.
- 20. Name signs are only used to refer to someone _____.
- 21. _____ contact is so commonly a part of Deaf communication...
- 22. _____ speech is not rude among the Deaf.
- 23. Classmates from deaf schools often behave like _____.
- 28. To act well a deaf person is expected to share _____ experiences.

29. _____ is particularly a difficult category to define.

- 30. Whether or not a person has Deaf parents...may influence his mode of social _____.
- 31. _____, age and sex must also be considered when observing the conventions of verbal politeness.
- 32. Open displays of _____ demonstrates one's positive attitude to everyone nearby.

Down

- 1. Conversations among hearing Americans are apt to begin _____ and slowly and conclude informally and quickly.
- 3. This sign means, "I am not going to repeat myself."
- 6. Signing that uses English word order or syntactic patterns has been given a variety of names; _____, Ameslish, and Pidgin Sign English.
- 7. To greet another after getting attention, one may grasp a hand, hug the person, hold up a hand and _____ h-i.
- 8. Among deaf people, getting to the point and being _____ is never rude.
- 10. Ending a conversation among deaf people is a _____ process.
- 12. Maintaining _____ contact in ASL is essential
- 13. During a lengthy speech, a signer will often pause and ask, " _____?"

- 15. For the majority of Deaf Americans, ASL is the _____ language in which they are truly fluent.
- 17. If a speaker becomes frustrated with a person who continues to be distracted, he will tap....sign " _____".
- 18. If the person one wants to converse with is too far away to touch, a person may try _____ in an exaggerated manner.
- 24. Turning one's back on someone can also be interpreted as an _____.
- 25. Sharing _____ is an affirmation of the unity of the Deaf community.
- 26. Question faces are indicated by showing raised _____.
- 27. _____ can be had by signing very small...