

Europe and Russia

Across

4. Type of tourism where people have a low impact on the environment and the people that they visit.
6. Name of a place in Ukraine that Russia invaded in 2014 that has been made part of Russia.
8. A collection of countries which were set up during the Cold War to defend themselves against the Soviet Union.
9. The name of the mountain range that separates Europe from Asia.
10. The name given to the political alignment of European countries.

Down

1. A northern place in Russia which is known for cold harsh conditions.
2. A type of government which has a great deal of power, it may use force to get what it wants.
3. Name of a biome in Russia which is made up mainly of pine trees and snow.
5. A collection of countries which usually have physical boundaries, like seas and mountains.
7. Wealthy Russian businessmen who become rich from oil, gas and other natural resources.