

European Explorers

Across

2. This name was used to describe the Aboriginal peoples for many years.

5. Europeans began _____ North America.

6. Goods from the _____ included silk cloth and spices such as cloves and cinnamon.

10. Work on a ship went on _____ hours a day.

11. Most meals on a ship included _____, a soup or stew made of boiled fish and peas.

14. After many days at sea, pale, wiggly beetles called _____ usually got into the biscuits.

15. John Cabot found more _____ than people.

16. _____ started working on ships as young as nine or ten years old.

18. A _____ is someone who doesn't have experience at sea.

19. _____ are things that are fair for people to have or do.

20. _____ are people whose main job is trading.

Down

1. _____ travelled further north than Columbus did.

3. When explorers arrived, _____ peoples guided through their traditional territories.

4. In 1492, the king and queen of Spain were interested in the ideas of the master mariner named _____.

7. Early North American communities were called _____.

8. Three famous Spanish ships were named the Nina, the Pinta & the _____.

9. Explorers looked for the _____ at night to help them find directions.

12. Routes from _____ to Europe were controlled traders who charged high prices for bringing goods to Europe.

13. _____ were people from Europe.

17. The _____ was in charge of the ship.