

Everything about Acting on Screen

Across

- 2. (screen): The end of the filming for the day or the whole production
- 3. Editing of the Screenplay or a play
- 7. (screen): A written piece of material by a Screenwriter used for a film or TV, also known as Script
- 9. Either location where the filming takes place or a stage where a theatrical production is being staged
- 10. The person responsible for all components of the production
- 12. Commercial success of any production/performer based on profits and audience's size
- 15. A list of actor's information, including Credits, personal details, special skills, etc.
- 16. An actor's clothing for the performance or filming
- 17. Specific choices an actor makes to bring the character to life

Down

- 19. The process of actors being chosen (cast) for the role, done by the Casting Director and/or Director, Producer
- 21. Coming up with actions and/or lines on the spot without any preparation
- 22. (screen): People who work in the background of the scene, often referred to as Extras
- 23. (screen): A first episode of the TV show that is produced in order to sell the whole show
- 24. Five minute break
- 1. The time by which someone has to be on the set or stage; start of the day of shooting
- 4. An artist's tryout for a role/job where demonstration of skills is required
- 5. A verbal exchange among at least two actors

- 6. The person responsible for the business side, as well as financing and supervising the production
- 8. An actor who learns one or more roles to substitute in case principal actors cannot perform
- 11. (screen): A cue to cease the action of the scene, usually given by the Director
- 13. (screen): Credits shown in the beginning of a film or a TV show
- 14. (screen): The end of the filming for the day or the whole production
- 18. (screen): A non-speaking role in the production that is used in the background to create an atmosphere of the scene
- 20. (screen): A term used to indicate an off-camera directions, narration, commentary, etc.