

Evolution & Inheritance

Across

1. Leclerc believed that environmental changes could lead to this.

4. This historian thought that living were able to transform from one thing to another.

8. He thought that the first human would have been the child of a different type of animal.

10. This is another word for evolution.

11. This theorist believed that humans had developed through an evolutionary process like every other living thing.

12. This philosopher thought that is was merely by accident that some plants and animals survived while others did not.

13. This physician thought that all living things have one common ancestor.

Down

2. C. Darwin believed that these helped living things survive as they were the fittest and therefore had an advantage over other living things.

3. He thought that the Solar System and the Earth also evolved like the rest of the living things on Earth.

5. Taoist philosophers thought this affected the features living things have.

6. According to this philosopher, Gaia created the species and the ones who functioned the best survived and had offspring.

7. Augustine of Hippo believed all life was created by _____.

9. According to Maupertuis, these gave rise to new varieties of living things and new species.