

Exam Review

Across

- 3. the ethical appeal, means to convince an audience of the author's credibility or character.
- 7. the process of taking someone else's work and ideas and claiming them as one's own
- 8. (of written work) dealing with the writer's own life
- 10. the emotional appeal, means to persuade an audience by appealing to their emotions.

11. to acknowledge what is similar

- 12. intended to explain of escribe something
- 13. the action of mentioning or alluding to something

Down

- 1. to acknowledge what is different
- 2. good at convincing someone to do or believe something through the reasoning and the use of temptation

4. a spoken or written account of connected events; a story

5. (of data or written work) dealing with a particular person's life.

6. serving or seeking to describe

9. the appeal to logic, means to convince an audience by use of logic or reason.

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|------------------|--------------|------------|----------|
| pathos | Narrative | Persuasive | ethos |
| autobiographical | Reference | logos | contrast |
| plagiarism | Biographical | Expository | Compare |
| descriptive | | | |