

Expert Studies: Production

Across

- 10. The ideas or talent of a workforce. Examples include books, music and movies.
- 11. Types of inventory systems which coordinate suppliers, warehouse storage, and factory floor delivery so that no material is on the factory floor that won't be used up in a short space of time.
- 12. Facts provided or learned about an entity.
- 14. The raw materials that go into making the product.
- 15. Categorizing goods and size, quality, and other factors.

16. Those who decide how best to use an organization's human, financial, and material resources.

17. The 6 types of primary industries

Down

- 1. Any goods used in the manufacturing of other goods.
- 2. Money invested into a business.
- 3. Ensuring that the product a company makes conforms to certain standards.
- 4. To convert a raw material into a semi-finished or finished product.

5. Raw materials which go into making the product, but are not part of the finished good.

6. Any physical or mental 'work' which goes into making a good.

7. Hiring another company to perform a task that your company can't natively do.

8. Taking something from its original, natural state and modifying it and combining it with other materials into a finished product.

9. Centralizing work around one area or building.

13. Having a job done by machines.