

Explanation Essay

Across

5. this summarises the essay and states and explains the most important point.

10. Statement of Relative _____. This is the most important point.

11. Editing your work to fix up errors.

12. Words in the question that need to be clearly explained

13. This sentence sums up each body paragraph

14. This follows the topic sentence by expanding on the it

15. This outlines the key points to be covered in the essay

17. The required register / vocabulary to use in writing your essay

18. Copying someone else's work without acknowledging them

Down

1. This is a penalty if you miss the deadline

2. This opens the essay by clearly stating the topics and the points to be explained

3. These contain the details of the topic in a group of sentences

4. This statement opens the essay

6. This essay type should answer either what, why or how. It could list causes, effects, events or give reasons.

7. This clearly states the meaning of the keywords

8. These devices show the progress of the essay

9. A simple introductory sentence in each body paragraph

16. These help explain the point by providing evidence