

Exploring Human Origins in the Museum

Across

2. Neanderthals made spear points with a stone or soft _____.

4. Traces of what were shown in the tools that show that neanderthals may have glued parts of their tools to make other, more complex tools?

5. Who were the 'masters' of making sharp-edged tools?

13. Besides the protruding occipital torus and thick eyebrow ridge, what else is a major characteristic of the Homo erectus?

14. What was one of the most complete skeletons that was found dating from the early hominid period?

15. Who was the artist of The Mural of Primate Evolution?

Down

1. Was Lucy a male or female?

3. When the first fossilized skull was found, what scientific field emerged?

6. In excavations near Peking, China, researchers found several partial skulls of what species?

7. The Mural of Primate Evolution shows vignettes from how many years ago of primate evolution?

8. How many years ago was a new tool-making technique produced a sharp-edged flake of stone.

9. The hominids found in Peking, China became known as what?

10. When was the first complete skullcap found at the Peking, China site?

11. Lucy was named after a song called "Lucy in the Sky with Diamonds" by what band?

12. The Mural of Primate Evolution shows detailed depictions of early primates and _____.