

Exposition

Across

2. This type of question enforces the reader to think about their own views on the topic.

6. Simple, compound and complex are 3 varieties that we want to see in your essay.

8. This tone should always be used in essay writing.

9. 15 out of the 35 marks for your essay will be for this.

10. Using this type of language helps the reader to feel a certain way.

11. An essential part of writing that enables to learner to understand what you have written.

12. We would like to see 5 of these in your essay.

Down

1. Personal experience used to back up the point you're making.

3. Using this in your essay is not a good idea!

4. Always include this to bring your points together and sum up your ideas.

5. This part of the essay should clearly outline the issues you will write about.

7. A persuasive technique to evidence your point.