

Name: _____

Factors of production

Across

4. Someone who takes a hobby and starts a business based on this
11. (Blank) in the South African market place have a great ability to influence the (blank) labour market
12. ability to attract labour - means that the business makes an effort to ensure that their business are operational
13. Machines are know as (blank)
15. Capital is
16. (blank) is a important component for the function the functioning of factors .
17. We have huge plantations where we plant different types of trees that are used for a variety of purposes are know as (blank)

18. Framing with crops such as mealies , sunflowers tabaco and different types of fruits and vegetables are known as (blank)
19. (Blank) is the money in a business that is used to start the business
20. (Blank) is the money that has been borrowed from a financial institution
Down
1. (Blank) Refers to people that have had specialized training
2. The (blank) provides us with the necessary light for vegetation and heat that is important for humans and animals
3. The reason they start a business it to survive
5. (Blank) is the money in a business that is used to start a business or expand the business

6. (Blank) are those individuals who identify a gap in the market and who then create a product or service that satisfies the wants/needs of the consumer
7. Jobs that require (blank) labourers are generally more complex than those jobs performed by unskilled labour
8. Previously disadvantaged people have seen and opportunity in the fact that government now allocates tenders to this group of people
9. We have 3 types of labor semi-skilled Labour , (blank) and skilled labour
10. Natural resources can be classified in to On the surface , below the surface and (blank)
14. Someone who starts a business based on a societal need which the government is not able to meet