

Fair trade Act

Across

5. being the same in quantity, size, degree, or value.

9. present or existing from the beginning; first or earliest.

11. row or cause to grow and become more mature, advanced, or elaborate.

12. the state of a country or region in terms of the production and consumption of goods and services and the supply of money.

13. a connoisseur of good food; a person with a discerning palate.

15. a person or organization that puts money into financial schemes, property, etc. with the expectation of achieving a profit.

16. give (someone) something, typically money, in recognition of loss, suffering, or injury incurred; recompense.

18. that which is morally right; righteousness.

20. impartial and just treatment or behaviour without favouritism or discrimination.

Down

1. what is the same as internet

2. able to be maintained at a certain rate or level.

3. fair prices are paid to the producers.

4. a stock or supply of money, materials, staff, and other assets that can be drawn on by a person or organization in order to function effectively.

6. help, typically of a practical nature.

7. the weather conditions prevailing in an area in general or over a long period.

8. a large body of people united by common descent, history, culture, or language, inhabiting a particular state or territory.

10. the state of being extremely poor.

14. give (someone) the authority or power to do something.

17. an abundance of valuable possessions or money.

19. trade between companies in developed countries and producers in developing countries