

Name: _____

Fall prevention

Across

4. The sensation that you or the room are spinning
6. A person who is receiving, has received, or has requested health care.
7. Team members working together to achieve a shared goal.
8. A condition that makes bones more porous and brittle, and thus more likely to fracture from falls.
11. A mineral found in bones and teeth. Makes them strong.

Down

1. Refers to physicians, professional, unregulated staff, and others engaged in the delivery of health services.
2. Broken bones
3. doctors that care for seniors.
5. The process of reducing clutter and moving into a smaller residence in order to simplify day-to-day living.
9. Likely outcome - a forecast- of a disease in a particular person
10. The ability to distribute your weight in a way that allows you to hold a steady position or move at will without falling