Fallacies

Across

2. Misrepresent someone's argument to make it easier to attack.

4. Making assumption about a whole group based on small sample.

8. Famous persons support this cause

9. Manipulate argument to get emotional response.

10. Mistaken beliefs based on unsound arguments.

11. Two thing being compared are not alike

Down

1. The premises of an argument does not support the conclusion of the arguer.

3. Not enough evidence to support dire chain reaction of arguer

5. Assuming that because A comes after B, therefore A caused B.

6. You cant believe what she says, she got a speeding ticket.

7. Most of the world knows this is true.