

Family law: Marriage

Across

1. A marriage that does not comply with the requirements for a valid marriage under the Marriage Act 1961 is considered _____ and _____.
6. A formal agreement to get married
10. The union of a man and a woman
12. Being married to one person
13. A marriage ceremony
15. The name for two or more persons who live together and are related to each other by blood, marriage or adoption

16. A written agreement that is made between the parents of a child

Down

2. Name for domestic partners with or without children
3. A party to a marriage is liable to maintain the other party, to the extent that they are reasonable able, if, and only if, the other party is unable to support him or herself adequately.
4. Entering into a monogamous marriage more than once in a lifetime (but not at the same time)
5. A woman who bears a child for another person

7. On death, the property passes automatically to the other proprietor/s

8. Also known as gay marriage or homosexual marriage
9. Each person owns a share of a property and it does not pass automatically to the other on death
11. Sexual relations between people classed as being too closely related to marry each other
14. _____ usually involves an element of force, constraint or threat of violence. However, it can include pressure from family.