

Name: _____

Date: _____

Fahrenheit 451 / Literary Devices

Across

- 4. Language that usually normally signifies the opposite
- 9. A repetition of similar sounds
- 11. Remembering something that has already happened

Down

- 1. Giving human traits and characteristics to something non-human
- 2. Refers to sound words/ words that represent action
- 3. A hint or clue of what may come

- 5. An expression designed to call something to mind without mentioning it explicitly
- 6. Using specific words that exaggerate and overemphasize
- 7. Indirect Comparison/Not using 'like' or 'as'
- 8. Comparing two unrelated things, people, places, or concepts using the words 'like' or 'as'
- 10. Words that paint a picture/ that usually use the 5 senses