

Features of a text

Across

1. A question that does not need an answer
5. You might use one or two of these in your article to give us some background information
7. You put yours in the top right hand of your letters
8. You might end your letter this way if you don't know the name
9. This type of text might start off with: "Hello Ladies and Gentlemen"

10. If we squash together the words "do not" we would use one of these
11. Use these at the end of sentences (4, 4)

Down

2. They go at the start of sentences, on names and on places and on towns (7, 7)
3. An article ALWAYS needs one
4. Saying things more than once to emphasise your point (4, 2, 5)
6. You need these in all of your writing to break up your text
